LOWERING THE COST OF LIVING

HOW WE ENTER INTO THIS "HOME" QUESTION OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

James J. Hill, the Minnesota railroad man, says: "It's not the high cost of living, but the cost of LIVING HIGH that is troubling the American people.

And living high means, in most cases, giving a dollar for less than a dollar's worth of value. Things are not necessarily cheap because the price is low. It's quality that counts.

That is where we do our duty. No matter what price you pay, you get at least your dollar's worth of quality here. Generally it's more.

The foundation of this store's business is "quality." That's the feature we take care of first. A trip through this store will convince you of the fairness of our pricing, but price is a second consideration.
